A Paying Crop. F. W. Burbridge, M. A., of Dublin, in his opening address at the narcissus conference, held in 1896, said: "An acre of wheat or potatoes may be put down as worth from £20 to £50, according to locality, variety, etc., but an acre of choice daffodils or narcissuses may be worth anything from £50 to £500, or even more. The advisability of blending bulbgrowing with the culture of flowering roots of all kinds is increasingly apparent, and thus the chance of success is widened. In addition, flower production may be regarded as a very natural aid to the enlargement of the scope of the bulb grower. There is an astonishing demand in large cities for the very commonest kinds of blossoms, and many a grower is adeing substantially to his annual turnever and profits by the production of these ordinary flowers.-Dundee Adver-cial. Its men knew nothing of frearms, save the ffintlocks of their grandfathers, objects of curlosity in their shops or homes, except in the far west, where the life of 1776 was still being lived. The result was that in the east the southern troops were generally victoricus for a couple of years until the northern troops learned to shoot. What little success the north had was in the west, where they were little better than a standoff.

The following was told at a smoker recently, and it is not so bad, either. The narrator told of another little feed he once attended, where eight men were sent home in one hack; and the driver simply rang the doorbell and when a feminine voice called from the upper window: "Who is there?" the jehu replied: "Missus, will you be so kind as to come down and pick out your baby?"-Lippin-

Dread of Assassination or Robbery Always with Him.

Probably the most complete burglar alarm system in the world is installed in John D. Rockefeller's house at Cleveland. Both the burglar alarm and an intricate signaling system are tested nightly when the master is in the house, and if a defect is found an expert is immediately summoned to in tracing the frost line," said an of-repair it. It is reported, but not confirmed that Mr. Rockefeller sleeps in a room on the top floor, the only entrance to which is through several other rooms in which trusted lieutenants are stationed. At night brilliant are lamps illuminate the grounds around the Rockefeller house, and at least three men are always on duty patroling the premises. Mr. Rockefeller's fear of assassination is such that even in his own house he will not sit with his back to a window. When forced to travel he will never, if it can be avoided, enter the public waiting room of a railroad station, preferring to sit in the baggage room or some other secluded place. It was not vanity, it is said, which prompted him to buy his now famous wig, but the fact that his baldness made him too easily recognized. The oil magnate has two trusted bodyguards, one an Irishman and the other a Swiss. A century or more ako Irish and Swiss bodyguards were the favorites of royalty.

CANADA BUYS BUFFALO HERD.

Taken from Flathead Reservation in Montana, Where They Ranged.

Helena, Mont.-Residents at this city were given an opportunity during the week to witness the partial shipment of the largest herd of buffalo in the world, which was transferred trom the Northern Pacific to the Great Northern on route to its future nome in Canada. The bison were being shipped by special train, and were Jetained here long enough to repair several cars which vicious bulls had damaged in their efforts to regain freedom. The herd was recently purchased at Ravalli, on the Flathead reservation, by the Canadian government, and will be placed in a park near Edmonton. It is not known how many there are In the hard, but it is estimated there are about 400. It is thought that there may possibly be 500, with the calves. The Canadian government paid $150,000 for the herd, and will place It in the Government park near Lamont, which is about 40 miles east of Edmonton. This park contains 10,000 acres, and the buffalo will be allowed to run free in it. The government has 80 buffalo in the park already

Chicago.-They fought for 20 minites as if the purse were the wealth of Rockefeller, then they were a sight such as two duelists seldom presentfor they ha dfought with pies. Apple, blueberry, mince and pumpkin pies, perhaps 75 were used in the duel. The combatants were Thomas Duggan and R. C. Oxley of Indiana Harbor, and the fight took place in Martin's bakery in that town. They were slightly intoxicated, and they got into a dispute over some work in the steel mill where they were employed. Duggan picked up his half-eaten piece of pie and slammed it in Oxley's ear. The battle was on. Oxley ran behind one pie case and hurled a mince pie at his assailant, and Duggan returned the fire with a pumpkin pic. Martin protested, and both antagonists splashed pie all over him. Then he called the police, but the duel between Daggan and Oxley were merrily on. Two patrolmen arrived. In e name of the law they ed the duelists to stop, and in reply got pumpkin pie smeared over their blue suits. The contest ended only when the bakery had been emptied of its pies. Then the combatants were arrested.

CHARRED MONEY RUN OPENED.

Treasury Traces Frost Line's Advance by Burned Savings.

Washington .- "This is the time of the year when we have no difficulty

Late in the spring and early in the summer farmers and other frugal people put away their savings in stoves, which, with rising atmospheric temperature are temporarily put out of commission. Now you would think that men of that type before starting up the fires in the fall would first think of the wad. but they don't. The fire is started, and up goes the paper money in smoke.

PART.

Then charred money begins to pour in on the treasury for redemption. "If we had no other way of finding it out we would know from the burnt money that is sent in for redemption that the frost line begins in Maine in September. In like manner we trace it southward and westward. A day or so ago it struck Green county. Indiana, a little early for that region at this season. The claims for redemntion are now coming in quite regularly, but as October advances and parler stoves are lighted for the winter they will come in in ever-increasing num
